

Religious Education Congress 2017
Anna Scally
Volunteers: A New Approach to Getting Them,
Keeping Them, Surviving Them
Session 8-19

GETTING AND KEEPING HAPPY VOLUNTEERS

1. They need you to be prepared for them.
2. They need to feel welcomed.
3. They need good training.
4. They need interesting work.
5. They need to know how much time this will take.
6. They need to be appreciated.
7. They need to be communicated with.
8. They want to know they are making a difference.
9. They want to learn something new.
10. They need feedback.

From: Anna Scally
Cornerstone Media, Inc.
cornerstonemedia.org • cormedia@aol.com 707-324-9120

Book Anna today to lead a workshop for your volunteers!

NEVER BEEN OFFERED BEFORE
to
LOS ANGELES RELIGIOUS EDUCATION
CONFERENCE, ANAHEIM, CA FEBRUARY 24-26, 2017

Thank you for your dedication to ministry. You are making a difference in so many lives.

To show my appreciation to you, I would like to give you a special offer.

🕒 If you book me for any of your upcoming events – rallies, training workshops, retreats, intergeneration events and more – you will receive the second day FREE.

Valid for new bookings only.

Sincerely,
Anna Scally,
President Cornerstone Media, Inc.

cornerstonemedia.org $ cormedia@aol.com
P.O. Box 1185, Healdsburg, CA 95448
707-324-9120